LOCAL BRIEFS.

John Morgan, a messenger boy, living at 304 G Street southwest, was knocked from his bicycle by a swiftly speeding automobile at the corner of I and Thirtieth Streets northwest, late yesterday afternoon, sustaining a number of bruises about the body, and necessitating his being sent to the Emergency Hospital. Later he was able to go home. The automobile sped on its way, and the chauffeur is not known.

Assessor Darnelle has reported to the District Commissioners that, in his opinion, the license law does not apply to rummage sales. He says it could not have been the intention of Congress in passing the law to include occasional sales of second-hand merchandise for purposes of charity.

George B. Stone, of 1339 P Street northwest, will be informed by the District Commissioners that his application for a permit to repair stationary awning will be granted on condition that he substitute corrugated iron for wood in the covering, and that it be allowed to project not more than four feet six inches beyond the building line.

Richard Wilson, colored, was held in Police Court yesterday under $1,000 bond for his appearance for a jury trial on a charge of assault. Alice Thompson, of South Washington, is the complaining witness.

A dispute and fight over the ownership of a mongrel cur, led to the arrest and conviction of George Carless, thirty-five years old. He was charged with assaulting Henry Page and was fined $50 with a month on the Government farm or a month on the farm.

HENRIETTA V. HERRON'S WILL.
 Through Attorney Jesse E. Potbury, who appears for the estate, the last will and testament with two codicils annexed of the late Henrietta V. Herron, an old resident of this city, was filed in the Probate Court yesterday morning. Mrs. Herron resided for a number of years in her old home at 206 P Street northwest. She leaves an estate valued at about $10,000, and in her will directs that all of the property shall be sold and the proceeds divided among her sons and daughters, grandsons and granddaughters. One of the codicils appears in the handwriting of Mrs. Herron.

NEGRO SOCIETY ON BOOKER WASHINGTON

Local Colored Men Express Decidedly Diversified Views.

The Bethel Literary and Historical Association heard an address last night from Jesse Lawson, of this city, in which he took issue with W. H. Ferris, of Boston. The latter said recently that Booker T. Washington's utterances and philosophy were a barrier rather than a help to the negro.

Mr. Lawson, who is a personal friend of Washington, argued industrialism, as advocated by Washington, as the one channel through which he may expect to achieve success in the United States. Mr. Lawson's position was that the industrial man is as necessary to the country's progress as the professional man, and that strength could lie only in their union. The audience packed the room and was divided in sentiment, as was shown by the general discussion which followed, and for every supporter of Washington there was some one opposed to his views.

NEWS NOTES FROM THE DISTRICT COURTS

On motion of Mrs. Ellen Spencer Muesy, the following women have been admitted to practice before the Court of Appeals: May Wood, Ida May Moyers, and Josephine C. A. Page.

"The New York Bond and Debiture Company" has been incorporated by Harvey L. Maddox, E. L. Squire and Thomas McGrath. The object of the corporation is to transact a general bond and debenture and real estate business. The capital stock is $3,000 with privilege to increase to $1,000,000.

Justice Gould, in Equity Court No. 2, signed a decree granting Emma P. Cochran a divorce from James O. Cochran.

A decree has been signed by Justice Gould granting a divorce to Teresa Gardiner from Elijah W. Gardiner, Jr., on the ground of desertion.

Grace Hayes was granted a divorce from John W. Hayes for desertion.

INJURY TO A BRICKLAYER.

A piece of falling timber from an upper floor of the addition to the New Willard Hotel, now in course of construction, struck Herbert Briggs, a bricklayer, yesterday afternoon, knocking him to the basement below. He struck an iron beam in his fall, and while this broke the fall so that his injuries are not serious, he sustained a broken wrist and a number of cuts about the head and face. After treatment at the Emergency Hospital, Briggs was able to go to his home at 525 Fourteenth Street northeast.

RUNAWAY BOY ARRESTED.

Captain Boardman last night received a telegram from Chief of Police Howard, of Richmond, Va., stating that Arthur McCauley, who ran away from his home, at 1309 Thirty-fifth Street, Georgetown, some time ago, had been arrested in that city. His relatives were notified, and replied that they would go to that city today and bring the boy home.

Divided at Her Death Between Charity and Personal Requests.

The will of Frederick Pilling, dated September 27, has been filed for probate. His wife, Mary Pilling, during her life, will have the use of the estate, and upon her death the estate will be divided as follows:

To the general assembly of the Presbyterian Church, for the use of the relief fund for disabled ministers, $1,000.
 To the Children's Hospital, Garfield Hospital, and the Central Dispensary, $1,000 each.
 To the Washington City Orphan Asylum, $1,000.

 To the Humane Society, $3,000.

 To D. M. Orndorff, $500.
 To Mary Ellen Pilling, $3,000.
 To Mary Emma Pilling, $500.
 To Waldo Pilling, $300.
 To Arabella V. P. Fuller, $3,000.

To the children of Franklin Albert Pilling, $1,500, to be equally divided between them.
 To the children of the late Edward Pilling, $1,500, to be equally divided among them.
 To Mary Eliza Jones, $2,500.
 To Joseph Pilling, a gold watch and chain.

The remainder of the estate goes to the testator's eight nieces, Ella Truman, Catherine Bond, Sarah Rea, Mary Ellen Pilling, Elizabeth Pilling, Emily P. Lamson, Caroline Porter, and Arabella V. P. Fuller, to be shared equally.

Also the will of Daniel Paul McCartney, of the United States Navy, dated December 18, 1894. Bernard McCartney receives the personal property and Mary McCartney, his niece, $1,000. The remainder of the estate is left to his wife, Mary Virginia McCartney.

In the will of Rose M. Nourse, dated June 1, 1890, with a codicil dated May 16, 1894, the revenues derived from a tract of land fronting on the Tenleytown Road are to be applied toward the support of St. Alban's Parish. The remainder of the estate is left to Mary L. Nourse and James B. Nourse, the sister and brother of the testatrix.

REPAIRS TO HAMILTON ROAD.

Morris Hacker, Superintendent of Roads, has reported to the District Commissioners that minor repairs have been made to the Hamilton Road, which, it is believed, will improve the drainage and general condition of the roadway. This action was taken as the result of several complaints filed with the Board within the past few weeks, relative to the muddy surface between Congress Heights and the Hebrew Cemetery.

JURY COULD NOT AGREE.

Frank H. Smith, who was on trial in Criminal Court, No. 1, for alleged blackmail, was released on his personal bond yesterday. The jury was unable to agree. He was accused of attempting to extort money from Solomon Alston, colored, of 245 G Street northeast, by pretending to be a detective with a warrant for Alston's arrest. Smith offered to let him go for $2.

Champagne Comparison.

Of a total importation of 399,708 cases by all brands of champagne in 1902, G. H. Mumm & Co.'s Extra Dry reached over 125,000 cases, being 407,294 bottles more than any other brand. The magnificent quality and natural dryness of the Extra Dry of the now celebrated 1898 vintage, justly puts it in a unique position of pre-eminence.—Advt.

WOMAN PREFERS BEGGING TO A CHARITABLE HOME

Tramps the Streets With Her Grandchild to Excite Pity.

When the police last night picked up an old woman and a five-year-old child, who were trudging through the rain at Sixteenth Street and Benning Road northeast, they thought they were relieving a worthy case of destitution. The old woman told a pitiful story of want and sickness, and assured the police that she had no home. The pair were sent to the House of Detention for the night.

When the two were taken this morning to the Board of Children's Guardians with a view to finding a home for the little girl, they were at once recognized as an old case, which has hitherto caused the board a great deal of worry. The woman's name is Mary Robinson, and the child is her granddaughter, Rose L. Wilkerson, whose father was drowned several months ago in the canal near Georgetown. Since the death of the son-in-law, the grandmother has made a practice of tramping the streets begging, using the child as a means of securing contributions. Her especial field of operation has been the public markets.

Mrs. Robinson refuses to go to a home for women, and also objects strenuously to giving up the child. She either wishes that both shall be given a home together, or that she be allowed to continue her peregrinations, using the child as a means to secure alms. In the opinion of those who have the welfare of the little one at heart, the grandmother is not a worthy custodian for the child, and the juvenile court will be asked this afternoon to take the child from her and award it to the Board of Children's Guardians, who will provide it with a good home. A Catholic charitable institution stands ready to give the old woman a home, if she will accept it.

ONE-FIFTH OF AN ACRE

TAXED SIX THOUSAND DOLLARS

E. S. Davis, Collector of Taxes, has called the attention of the District Commissioners to the requirements of law which compel him to advertise for tax sale .02 of an acre of ground, on which there appears to be $6,757.68 tax. The sum named is really the tax, interest, and penalty on 3.48 acres of ground, subdivided since the tax became due. According to a ruling of the Corporation Counsel, the tax cannot be divided pro rata among the lots, and the .02 of an acre being the only parcel that can be advertised, the aggregate sum goes against it.

Mr. Davis asks that the Commissioners issue an order correcting the manifest absurdity and injustice of such procedure.

IMPROVEMENT OF FIFTEENTH STREET

The District Commissioners have directed their secretary to inform L. N. Ingram that the improvement of Fifteenth, Erie and Huron Streets would cost in the aggregate $22,000; payment for the work would require a special appropriation from Congress, and his request will be placed in the files of the suburban section for consideration when the estimates for the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1904, are made up.

Death of John F. Manogue.

John F. Manogue, a well-known resident of Georgetown, died yesterday afternoon at his home, 1221 Thirtieth Street northwest. He was ill but a short time. Death was due to pneumonia. Deceased was the husband of Mrs. Ella Manogue. He was the son of Mrs. Ella Manogue, and the brother of George W. Manogue, of Thirty-second and M Streets, and William H. Manogue, the lawyer. CASHED A FORGED CHECK FOR A SUAVE STRANGER

Calm, suave and polite was the young man who called at the business house of M. Eisenmann & Bro., just prior to their closing last night, and asked for Moses Eisenmann, the head of the firm. To the latter the stranger explained that he had a small check from E. L. Comstock, which he was desirous of cashing at once, and that Hugh F. Harvey, the restaurateur, had sent him to Mr. Eisenmann with the assurance that the latter would be able to accommodate him. The check, he explained, was for the small sum of $1.50.

Taken off his guard by the man's pleasing address, and his natural ease, Mr. Eisenmann, with the assurance that the latter would be able to accommodate him. The check, he explained, was for the small sum of $1.50.
